7.1) What do you consider the strengths of this course?

Guidance in Research Proposal

Good choice of ~~the~~ articles for the course. Interesting and useful.

good reading material

The opportunity to already start working on my master's thesis
Interesting readings

good

François was nice.

Strength - good choice of readings -

It gives clear the practical knowledge of research.

The content of the syllabus and the readings.

learn lecture method; it encouraged me.

I enjoyed the class, it was taught in an engaging manner.

7.2) What do you consider the weaknesses of this course?

Literature was interesting, but not graded or tested in any other way. This reduced class participation.
For our thesis guidors we also have to write proposals, so function of class unclear.

Although the texts were nice, they did not often seem to relate to the goal of the course.

bit critical

I wish our assignments were graded sooner and w/ more feedback. Also, there was no direct connection b/w written assignments and class material.

The course is very much similar to Ethnography I course

I don't think any.

Pretty similar to the course Method I.

7.3) Do you have suggestions for improvement?

Personally, I would have liked it if we would have to practice the methods.

less people in a group

I don't have -

Improvement of the professors skill communication
